Soldiers in prayer for one another

Our Family just before leaving Germany

By now, if you are reading this you should have recently received a family photo prayer card from us. You may go to TheAuldridges.com/eNews to add your email address to our digital mailing list (most frequent, but not too much!)

On to the fun stuff! So many of you know us from our Air Force careers, while some know us from church or just life along the way. Any way you slice it, we have been given the amazing opportunity and privilege to return to RAF Lakenheath, where my (Elaine's) AF career began and Wes' ended. If you knew us then, you know the need and impact of Christian community firsthand. If God is leading you to advance the Gospel among the nations, this partnership could be for you too!

There is no question that Airmen stationed overseas, far from familiar community, face many challenges. Have you ever wondered how you can support the troops? One option is to send the Gospel of Jesus to them. God did not stop with the writing of scripture, he sent a man, in the flesh of humanity. We see our calling as a similar one, as an incarnational ministry. Will you ask of the Lord how

He would have you involved in providing a safe, Christ-centered, family-filled option for community abroad?

The logistics: bottom line is we need monthly financial partners. Our budget increase to get to England is $4,000 per month. Our goal is to leave this July, but our expenses begin now! We will need to grow a startup fund to arrange travel and visa costs, to help supply a car upon arrival, and to move our belongings that are waiting for us in Germany, among other things.

We also need prayer.

- Would you pray with us for a team of supporters for this ministry? Is God asking you to join this team?
- Also for our kids' transition, as they're leaving both their family in the U.S. and their friends in Germany.
- Our education. Wes is continuing to work on his MDiv throughout the move, and I am continuing education in Spiritual Formation.

You are welcome and encouraged to share our information with anyone who might have an interest in serving military communities.

In Christ,
Wes & Elaine
