DRINKWARD

Dear friends and family,

I am writing about an exciting opportunity the Lord has given me this summer! As I pursue my degree in Ministry and Intercultural Studies at Corban University, I've been flooded with amazing opportunities to be challenged, grow, and learn more about Jesus. Back in September, the Lord placed it on my heart to apply for an international internship through Cadence International. However, because international travel has been restricted due to COVID-19, the Lord has opened other doors stateside and has given me the chance to serve alongside missionary families in a hospitality house near Fort Bragg in North Carolina. The missionaries I will be working with are using the ministry of hospitality to share the gospel and their lives with military personnel and their families.

WHAT IS CADENCE?

Cadence International is an evangelical mission agency dedicated to reaching the military communities of the United States and of the world with the Good News of Jesus Christ. In a Cadence hospitality house, military personnel and their families find a welcoming smile, a comfortable couch, a home-cooked meal, and people who listen, love, and guide them to Christ. I'm honored to work with Cadence this summer serving the families and students of the military. For more information about Cadence and its mission and ministries, you can visit Cadence.org.

WHAT MY SUMMER WILL LOOK LIKE

I'll be heading to North Carolina for eight weeks this May–July. Once I arrive in North Carolina, I'll assist the ministry at the hospitality house in whatever ways they need. From leading Bible studies to discipling individuals in military families, I'll get to experience the ins and outs of ministry. The Lord is doing amazing things in hospitality house ministries across the world, and I'm thrilled to get to be a part of the incredible work at Fort Bragg.

HOW YOU CAN PARTNER WITH ME

The most important way you can partner with me is through prayer. This opportunity is only available because of The Lord, and it's all to glorify Him! So, partnering with me in prayer is my biggest need.

In addition, I am also raising financial support. The costs of ministry and living expenses, as well as a salary to go towards school, will be $3,954. I am hoping to be fully funded by the first week of May. Would you prayerfully consider joining my support team? If you feel called to donate, you can give online by going to my Cadence profile link in the footer, or by following the instructions on the attached response slip.

If you would like to receive updates about the adventures and the magnificent works of God while I'm there, I will be sending out regular emails with stories and photos of what the Lord is doing during my time there. Please text me at 360.440.5652, and I will add you to my email list.

Please feel free to contact me and keep up with me as I step into this new opportunity to love Jesus and love people. Thank you!

Gratefully,
Molly Drinkward
