

Serving with Cadence International

Tori Randall

APRIL 2021

Ft. Bragg Hospitality House, North Carolina

Hello! My name is Tori Randall. I am currently a junior at the Moody Bible Institute in downtown Chicago studying Human Services. I have the incredible opportunity to serve with Cadence International in North Carolina this upcoming summer. Cadence International is an evangelical mission agency dedicated to reaching the military communities of the United States and of the world with the Good News of Jesus Christ. Cadence missionaries also come alongside military chaplains by providing support, solid Christian community, and discipleship for those serving on bases around the world.

I first heard about Cadence International through a friend I met at Moody, but it did not spark my interest until I went to Israel on study abroad in the Spring of 2020. While I learned a lot of rich spiritual truths, seeing those who served in the military there stuck with me. In Israel everyone is required to serve in the military for two years after high school. I wrestled a lot with this, knowing that God did not build me for the military. However, through this I gained a desire to serve those who do choose to serve their country in this way.

When I got back to the States, I applied to intern with Cadence International so that I can learn how to serve and love well those who sacrifice so much for others. This summer I get to bring Christ's love to military families, specifically working with young adults and teenagers. God has been so faithful up to this point, and I am thrilled to see what else He has in store this summer.

This summer I will be serving at a hospitality house near Ft. Bragg in North Carolina. In a Cadence hospitality house, military personnel and their families find a welcoming smile, a comfortable couch, a home-cooked meal, and people who listen, love, and guide them to Christ. I will be working with a missionary family who serves full-time at the hospitality house, along with one other intern. I will be helping plan community events, building relationships, encouraging Soldiers, and pouring into several teenage girls whose parents serve at Ft. Bragg. I am extremely excited to love and care for those serving in the military this coming summer.

As I get ready to leave for North Carolina I would like to ask for your prayers, because it is only by the grace of God that people will come to know and love Him more.

- Please pray that God would prepare my heart as I get ready to leave, and that I will be able to serve Him and the Soldiers I am working with well.
- Please pray for the Soldiers I will be living life with, that they will grow to love the Lord even more.
- Please pray for provision that God would provide the funds for me to go and serve.

To serve with Cadence this summer, I also need to raise $4,445 by early May. Would you prayerfully consider supporting me financially? If you feel led to give, you can do so by following the link to my profile in the footer, or by following the instructions on the attached response slip.

I covet your prayers and appreciate your support. Thank you for taking the time to read this update. If you have any questions or would like to talk more with me about Cadence International and my heart behind doing military ministry, feel free to reach out! Thank you again!

In Christ,
Tori Randall
