MAKING THE MOST OF THIS SEASON

As we eagerly look forward to launching into full-time ministry next year, one of our goals is to maximize our time here in Salem, OR, using it as a time of preparation. We aim to use this time to hone our skills in ministry by seeking out opportunities to share the gospel and to be discipled in our faith, and we desire to grow closer to the Lord as we anticipate this big step. Two nights each week, we are hosting Bible studies with young adults, and seeing how the Lord has worked in these special groups has been an absolute blessing in our lives.

A BIG SUMMER

Our current stage of preparation for the mission field also involves support raising and traveling to meet with friends and family to share about the vision God has placed on our hearts for ministering to military members and their families with Cadence. We are working to gather a team of ministry partners—people who will pray for us and for those we are going to serve. Among this group, we are also aiming to build a team of monthly financial supporters who will partner with us in the sharing of the gospel. We ask for prayer as we seek to continue to grow our team.

A BIG GOAL

With that in mind, we have set a lofty goal for ourselves. At the time of this newsletter's writing, we are over a third of the way to being fully funded. We aim to be 75% funded by the end of the summer. That is a BIG goal, and it will only happen by the provision of God to raise up a team of partners. Once we reach that plateau of 75%, we will begin discussions on where our ministry will take place, which is something we eagerly await.

A CALL TO ARMS

As we continue in the process of honing our ministry skills and building our ministry team, we ask for consistent prayer in this journey. The process is humbling and challenging, and prayer is a constant source of encouragement for us as we continue in this step of faith. We ask for prayer for the two of us as we seek to glorify the Lord in our marriage and ministry; for continued opportunities to grow in our ministry skills; for the hearts of minds of those we are seeking to reach; for the Lord to raise up a team of financial partners who would join us in this ministry to military families. To those of you who have already committed to walking alongside us in prayer and/or financial support, we are so grateful for your partnership—this couldn't happen without you!

Gratefully,
Jarett and Dani
