PEACE I LEAVE WITH YOU; MY PEACE I GIVE YOU. I DO NOT GIVE TO YOU AS THE WORLD GIVES. DO NOT LET YOUR HEARTS BE TROUBLED AND DO NOT BE AFRAID.

Dear friends and family,

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

We have officially passed our one-year anniversary of living in Colorado. We are still not feeling as at home as we did in Germany, but we are starting to feel settled.

After a long and wonderful summer of traveling, we were happy to find a rhythm this fall. That was quite a task given that Anthony was out of town for a total of five weeks in two months. He went on recruiting trips to three colleges and a large missions conference. He also visited Germany and England to connect with supporters and Cadence staff, as well as do some work for his master's degree (which he will complete early in the new year). Please pray for us as we adjust to this new way of life with Anthony on the road regularly.

Meanwhile, I (Jessica) held down the fort at home. Alethia (Ali) started high school this year! She is doing great and is schooling all the other kids (and her teacher) in German 4. She is especially enjoying learning Japanese and volunteering at a local church coffee shop. Masami is in seventh grade and 13 years old. . . we've got another teenager on our hands! He joined the Rubik's Cube Club at school (yes, there is such a thing!) and is on the volleyball team. His favorite class is engineering. The difficulty is keeping him engaged and challenged in his classes. Elise started kindergarten. She is loving school, making friends, and learning to read and write. Her favorite class is music, and she started taking dance lessons this fall. As all the kids continue to experience culture shock, please pray for their faith to grow.

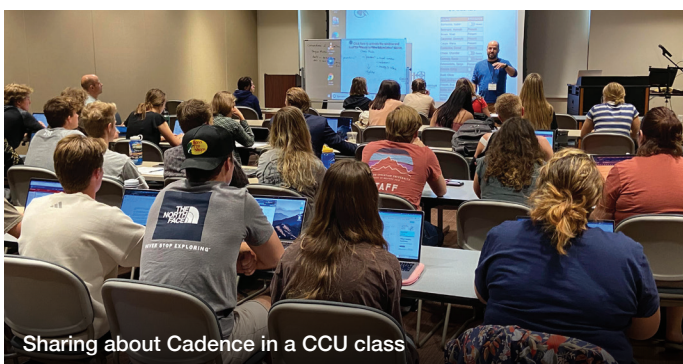

I really enjoy investing in new missionaries in my role as an MPD (Ministry of Partnership Development) Coach. I had five interns over the summer who I coached. They gave me a great opportunity to stretch and grow in my coaching skills. I am coaching a few other missionaries this fall and am excited to launch them to the field next summer. I also had an opportunity in November to attend a support-raising leadership conference that was helpful.

We continue to work towards raising the last of our monthly support. Our travels this summer were fruitful but didn't quite get us to 100%. As many peoples' finances took a hit from COVID-19 this year, it also impacted our support.

Would you prayerfully consider donating a year-end gift? And as the New Year approaches and you build your budget for next year, would you think about adding us to your monthly giving, or increasing if you already give?

We are so grateful for our many ministry partners over the years who have contributed to sending the gospel message out and loving military families well. So many lives have been transformed through Cadence ministries! We would love to have you join the team if you haven't already.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you this holiday season! We love you deeply and are so very grateful for your part in our lives. We pray that you fall more deeply in love with our great Father during this season.

Love and blessings,

The Amor Family
