

He has sent me
 to provide for all those who grieve in Zion,
 to give them crowns instead of ashes,
 the oil of joy instead of tears of grief,
 and clothes of praise instead of a spirit of weakness.
 They will be called Oaks of Righteousness,
 the Plantings of Yahweh,
 so that he might display his glory

This fall has been characterized by deep ministry and joyful conversations. Here are a few examples: tears rolled down her face as we shared about her worth to King Jesus; he felt insecure as a leader, but continued to ask us questions and study scripture so he could grow into the leader and minister of the gospel that God made him to be; their smiles lit up the room as we discussed where they would be assigned as new Cadence missionaries. These, and dozens of other conversations, make up the substance of this new role in Cadence.

Our wonderful Cadence Headquarters Team

It has been our delight to share the gospel and our lives with the military community for the past 15 years. The joy of those years of ministry was rich, and we had the ability to serve in all aspects of ministry that Cadence provides. Little did we know those experiences would prepare us for this season of service for all our field missionaries at Cadence HQ. This season of ministry is about leading and serving our field missionaries, which primarily happens through working with the Field Leaders. It's about disciples who make disciples. We link arms with and lead our Cadence staff, who are leading ministries around the world. We follow Jesus together, just as they follow Jesus together with servicemembers and their families. This fall has been packed with travel and conferences, and each trip represents many ministry relationships and leadership challenges. We love our Cadence team!

This year we are so excited to be a part of sending two new Cadence missionaries to the field. They had joined us in ministry in Okinawa and are now Cadence staff, ready to start full-time ministry. Seeing God work in them over the years and witnessing them following Jesus and seeking to minister to the military is so exciting and brings us joy.

FAMILY UPDATE

We are settling into life in Colorado and adjusting to the realities of living in America. This is a first for Andrea and me, which also means it is a first for our kids. The move was hard at first, but with time we are finding a rhythm that works for us. We are delighted with our home and our neighborhood. It is a small but vibrant neighborhood, and we have been able to engage in relationships with other families. Pray for the salvation of our neighbors and for solid relationships with them as we seek to love them well and share the gospel of Jesus with them.

Our neighborhood get together this fall.

Kavan is in fourth grade and played baseball this fall. He loved being on a team. After a rough start in school, he has found his feet and is doing very well. He has begun reading endlessly and is enjoying several great books. Keeley is in second grade. She is loving school, and nobody is a stranger to her. She has been learning to care for horses at a local stable and is beginning to ride. She loves it, and it is building her confidence. Kairi and Emiko are doing very well and attending pre-school at our church. They love playing in our yard (a first for our family), and they have made many friends at church and school.

Andrea and I love the chance to serve together in this role. She is the coordinator for women's connection and care, and it suits her well. Her voice and perspective are vital. We are better together and love the chance to invest in our Cadence staff collaboratively. It is taking a while to adjust to life in America, but we are thankful for our friends, family, and church.

As always, we seek to have an ongoing partnership with you. We would love to share more with you in person if you are in Denver or a place we are traveling. We post regularly on Epistle, and that is a great way to stay updated regularly. If you are not yet signed up, please reach out to us. Finally, we continue to strive to be fully supported, which will be an example to our staff and will also allow Andrea to take a portion of salary for her work. Due to job changes and COVID-19, we have lost some support and need $2,000 in additional monthly support. Some of these gifts will stop at the end of the year and we are hoping to raise the difference by then.

PRAYER REQUESTS

- Pray for the ongoing adjustment to stateside living
- Pray for fruitful relationships for the sake of the gospel in our neighborhood
- Pray for our Cadence ministries around the world
- Pray for disciples of Jesus growing strong and sent out through Cadence Ministries
- Pray for wisdom as we lead in this new capacity from Colorado

Grace and peace to you all. We are so thankful for your friendship and partnership for the sake of Christ. We pray your Christmas is a joyful reminder of God's incarnate and fearless love.
