FRAZIER

Dear friends,

We thought you would enjoy reading a note from Josh, one of the men in our ministry. In the photo, Josh is holding the cake.

I am a corporal in the Marine Corps. When I first entered the fleet here in Okinawa, Japan, I honestly thought it would be impossible to find fellowship or saints who love the Lord. But it was just the opposite.

During my time in the service, I have gone through many personal struggles and a marriage that fell apart quickly. Darrow and Vicki were not only a comfort, but also offered guidance and strength throughout that time. They, along with the brothers, reminded me of how vital fellowship and discipleship are. The many Friday night Bible studies and Hansen Christian Center activities and events brought me out of the lowest point of my life and back on track seeking and serving the Lord with love and joy in my heart. I am so grateful for those who support the Fraziers and have made possible their ministry here. I am so thankful for Darrow and Vicki and their love in action for me and my Marine brothers and sisters here. Oh, my goodness, and Vicki's yummy food! How could it not warm my once distant, dry heart?!

Jesus has watered and nourished me. My life is dedicated to the Lord, and I will go wherever He leads as I trust in Him and commit to living life alongside His Body, the church. I thank all the saints and faithful brothers in Christ from all the churches who donate and supply the needs for this house and this missionary couple. Your money, your resources, and your prayers are seen by God and will be remembered by Jesus who told us to care for His children and feed His sheep. Thank you all.

Love,

Joshua Dolash, USMC

MINISTRY

We have had a huge turnover of those attending our ministry. The lockdowns have really affected fellowship. Now that we can get together easier, we have been focusing on creating friendships, which usually happens organically through those we have discipled in welcoming new people. Right now, everyone is relatively new, but we have always found that ministry flourishes when creating friendships in the community is the priority. We enable this by having outings, game nights, and hangouts. Christianity is a personal relationship lived out in a Christian community.

COVID-19 UPDATE

Japan has finally lifted all the state of emergency zones. The Marines have lifted many restrictions, although more restrictions are still in place for those who are unvaccinated. For current information see the “Camp Hansen Okinawa” Facebook page.

FAMILY

Cassie and James are still in college at Barclay in Kansas. Cassie is a junior with a double major in Biblical Studies and Elementary Education. She has really enjoyed her assignments that include going to the local school to prepare and teach a lesson. She just went on a choir tour and was in the school musical. James is a sophomore in General Studies. He works a lot on campus and often plays drums on the worship team or leads worship at the bi-weekly chapel services at school. We are thrilled when we can catch him on YouTube in chapel which airs at 2:00 a.m. our time. Japan has still not reopened the borders, which means the kids aren’t able to come visit us. We miss them terribly and pray the borders will open soon.

FINANCES

Thank you for your faithful giving. We set aside a little every month for unexpected expenses and ministry upkeep. In the past couple of months, we have had to replace two air conditioners (Japan has them in each room), the microwave/vent hood died, and we completely remodeled the 50-year-old bathroom. Your part in God’s economy has enabled us to not only share the gospel but also our lives with the Marines (1 Thessalonians 2:8). The Marines that come here, especially the ones who spend the night, really appreciate the more usable and comfortable space.

We send out a very short weekly email update. Please email Darrow.Frazier@Cadence.org if you want to receive those.

Grateful for you,
Darrow and Vicki
