*Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
“God is not dead, nor doth He sleep;
The wrong shall fail,
The right prevail,
With peace on earth, good-will to men.”*

From “Christmas Day” by Henry Longfellow, 1863

Dear friends,

“Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace...”
Luke 2:14 ESV. During this holiday season, we have been thinking about peace—how God grants that to us, and how we can offer that to others.

Letty and I have been blessed to take on a new role at the airbase chapel in Germany. We are welcoming with a smile those who come through the doors, organizing events, making sure the service runs smoothly, and helping with communication in our community. We are doing our part to bring peace on earth.

So often, Letty returns home from her nursing job beaming! She shares how her patients are especially glad when she cares for them because she takes time to listen, she sings as she works, and she brings peace to their homes.

Letty’s mom has been moved to a nursing home where she has constant care. This is bringing peace and rest to our lives and allows us to better care for her.

Our men’s group has been bringing peace on earth by volunteering at a new homeless shelter. We have helped prepare for the pouring of a stronger foundation and have framed in new rooms, all while having great fellowship together. The shelter is run by Christians and works with teens between the ages of 18–24.

David is learning so much about walking with God. His time at Montana Wilderness School of the Bible has taught him so much, and he is learning to be a better leader by relying on God for the strength to do it.

Ruben has made it a habit to show up for school and work early so he can connect with his colleagues and teachers.

James sharing his testimony

They have seen a difference in his life as he continually looks for ways to share his faith and be a light.

Our boys' friend, James, who is part of our men's group, was recently baptized! The Lord really used him to bring peace to earth as many of his friends from school and work came to his baptism. He boldly shared of his struggles with sin and how God is working to change him and shape him like his Son.

The world without God has no peace. He has called us to reflect His peace amid hopelessness. Pray with us that we would continually find our hope in Him and bring peace to this military community. To God be the Glory!

Peace to you,
Dwight and Letty
