

Serving with Cadence International

Ben Sprague

MARCH 2022

Dear Friends and Family,

I wanted to write briefly to update you on how the Lord has been working in my life recently, and about an exciting opportunity that He has opened for me.

I am in my third year at Moody Bible Institute, and I absolutely love it! I feel as if I am daily being transformed more and more into the image of Christ as I pursue Him within a community of dear friends and learn from the wellspring of knowledge and wisdom from my professors. This year I also have the privilege to serve as a Resident Assistant and lead a floor of 20 men. This opportunity has greatly humbled me and has deepened my love for discipleship as I've gotten to witness the Lord work in powerful ways in the lives of these men.

I am studying Children and Family Ministries in hopes that the Lord will use it to equip me to be an effective minister of His gospel to children and their families wherever He leads me. The Lord has allowed me the opportunity to continue pursuing this call on my life this summer through an eight-week internship with Cadence International in upstate New York, ministering to the Soldiers and their families stationed at Fort Drum.

Cadence International is a ministry devoted to seeing military personnel and their families transformed by the power of the gospel through the means of hospitality, following the apostle Paul's example to "share not only the gospel of God, but our very lives as well" (1 Thessalonians 2:8). As an intern with Cadence, I will work alongside and be disciplined by Cadence missionaries, as well as teach, disciple, and invest in the lives of children and families who are a part of that military community.

I would be deeply grateful if you would consider partnering with me in two different ways. First, pray for me throughout my time of service. The military and their families are a community of people with their own unique challenges and needs. The harvest is plentiful, and the workers are few. Please pray that the Lord would use my time this summer to bring glory to His name and to further His gospel with the power that transforms people's lives.

The second way you can support me is to prayerfully consider partnering with me financially. I need to raise $7,500 to cover all the expenses of the eight-week internship which includes my travel, ministry costs, living expenses, and a small wage. This also allows me the opportunity to attend the worldwide Cadence conference in July, where I will receive ministry development and training, as well as connect with more vocational missionaries.

Donations are tax refundable and can be given electronically at Cadence.org/Sprague.B or by sending a check using the attached response slip and envelope (please make sure the check is written to Cadence International and not to me).

Lastly, if you want to stay informed about how the Lord is working during my internship, you can sign up to join my email list by emailing me at Ben.Sprague@Cadence.org with subject title "Add Me to your List!"

Thank you so much for taking the time to read about how the Lord has been working in and through my life, and for considering partnering with me as I continue to follow where He leads. I am so excited to see what God has planned this summer!

Blessings,
Ben Sprague
