

lifeline

PRAYING FOR MINISTRY TO THE MILITARY

JANUARY 2023

WEEK OF JANUARY 1

□ Jennessa Randall, Joint Base Lewis McChord, WA

Praise God for a great Christmas with our Soldiers who weren't able to go home for the holidays. Please pray as we kick off an initiative to read the Bible together, one book at a time. We want our group to grow in their love for the Word and their grasp of it.

□ Steve and Teeter Mauldin, Limited-Term, FL

I would appreciate your prayers as I (Steve) lost my elder sister, Meryle Jean Henry, on November 12 after a very long battle with multiple health issues. She would have been 89 years old on November 15, so angels have been preparing her cake and party this year. Funeral arrangements are scheduled for the spring.

□ Robin and Linda Windisch, Baumholder, Germany

We have many Soldiers out on extended missions. Please pray for good morale after the Christmas season. Also, pray for endurance for the families they have left behind.

WEEK OF JANUARY 8

□ Ralph and Betty Camp, Ambassadors, NV

Ralph is working on the personal applications section of his hermeneutics study guide. Please pray that the Lord will give him wisdom and attention to detail as he completes this portion of the book. Our ladies' Bible study will begin studying Jerry Bridges' book Respectable Sins on January 10. Ask the Lord to reveal our sins to us so that we may repent and build new habits.

□ Lou and Cathy Rozmiarek, Headquarters, CO

We will visit Yokosuka from January 14–25. We will meet with the Cadence Japan board and attend a luncheon to celebrate the approval of our religious hojin (non-profit status). This process began in 2015 and has been a long journey. We are grateful the Lord has given us favor with the Japanese government, and we can now move forward with establishing new ministries in Japan. Please pray for Jeremy and Shawna Quattlebaum as they pull together the details of the meeting and celebration. Pray for us that our travels will be safe and uneventful.

□ Paul and Sandra Bradley, West Pac Field Leaders, ID

Please pray for us as we travel to Hawaii in early January to visit our Cadence team. Pray that we will be an encouragement to our staff.

□ Joe and Caitlin Fletcher, NAS Oceana, VA

Please pray for the salvation of a young single-mom Sailor who has been coming to The Anchor. She has met with Caitlin a few times and talked about the challenges of raising a child solo in the Navy. "N" is seeking and hoping she can put her faith and trust in the Lord, but isn't quite ready to make the leap.

WEEK OF JANUARY 15

□ Nate and Louise Johnson, Home Assignment, CO

Please pray for us as we lead a chapel family retreat, January 20–22, for families at the Air Force Academy chapel. Pray that we would communicate well and that the Spirit will move in the lives of those present as we invite them to know Christ.

□ Mark and Carol Kohl, Ambassadors, SD

This month we desire to start a new ministry focusing on the officers at Ellsworth AFB. Pray that we will make the right contacts as we open our home to many new Air Force personnel.

□ Andrea Haddock, Pastoral Care Team, NC

Pray for those in the mission and in military communities who are struggling with post-holiday letdown.

WEEK OF JANUARY 22

☐ Jeff and Candace Walton, USAG Humphreys, South Korea

Please continue to pray for our family as we adjust to life in Korea. We moved here in July and are still adjusting to life in a new country, a new ministry, and homeschooling the boys. Pray our family stays strong and united so we can be a light to our community.

☐ Lorene Glynn, Air Force Academy, CO

As the preppies return from the holidays, pray they will maintain good grades in each of their classes, especially as they deal with limited sunshine until late February.

☐ Jeremy and Kim Cover, Fort Bragg, NC

Our youngest son, Daniel, is finishing the school year in public school after homeschooling for the previous five years. We pray for a fervent pursuit and deepening relationship with their Savior for all of our sons: Benjamin, Zachary, and Daniel. May the Lord's favor rest on them as they have eyes to see and ears to know the Lord's work in their lives and those around them. Praise God with me for this precious family I've been given!

Pray for our regular ministry events: men's group on Tuesdays, family fellowship groups on Fridays, and casual connection times on Sundays.

WEEK OF JANUARY 29

☐ Frank and Ruth Ann Branham, Home Assignment, CO

We are looking for a family near Fort Carson who will partner with us in ministry by opening their home to us and possibly providing a meal for our group. Our condo is nice but small, so we need a larger space.

☐ Nate and Louise Johnson, Home Assignment, CO

Please pray for our family as we participate in an intensive weekend designed to process our life transition. Pray for honesty and clarity so we can help our kids process their grief and the change in roles.

☐ Mike Martin, Camp Humphreys, South Korea

I am grateful for a seamless return to ministry after my stateside visit. Please pray that the Soldiers I am working with will look for opportunities to engage others with "true truth." Two of the men in my ministry who left here a few months ago were courageous in this way and I miss them.

Please pray for "B" who has a fairly serious hip disorder that has limited him physically and may affect his ability to remain in the military. This young man fires on all cylinders, and we have carried on our relationship through his departure, marriage, and maturing through a local church at his new base.

Praise

☐ Joe and Jill Vincent, Spangdahlem Air Base, Germany

We praise God for the wonderful Christmas celebration dinner at The Hangar. We are thankful for our intern Laura Sparks and all the wonderful ways she has added to the ministry here for the last 14 months. All glory to God!

☐ Ralph and Betty Camp, Ambassadors, NV

We had a wonderful and safe trip to visit our new great-grandson, Owen, and his parents. We praise God for the addition of this new life to our family. We thank God for the worry-free performance of our 19-year-old car during our travels.

☐ Jeremy and Kim Cover, Fort Bragg, NC

We praise God that Kim's dad remains cancer free!

☐ Frank and Ruth Ann Branham, Home Assignment, CO

We thank the Lord for you, our Lifeline partners, who have prayed for us over the years. Only the Lord knows what reward awaits you for your faithfulness in praying for Cadence missionaries. We are eternally grateful.