

Dear Friends,

I have some big news! After almost 25 years with Cadence International, I am stepping into a new ministry adventure. This change comes after much prayer, study, and seeking wise counsel. In 2021, Cadence changed its position related to the roles of men and women in teaching and positions of authority in ministry. As I considered various pieces of this change, I concluded that with the convictions I hold, I don't fit in Cadence as well as I once did. I have chosen to switch to a ministry organization with which I align more closely. I do this with love and thankfulness for my time in Cadence and my many brothers and sisters who remain in Cadence. We have varying views on this issue, but we still share a love for the military and for reaching them with the Good News of Christ.

WHAT'S NEXT FOR ME?

Thankfully, God has provided me a new mission to serve with. In 2021, some of my long-time Cadence friends started a new mission called Shiloh Military Ministries. It has the same heartbeat of life-on-life ministry to the military and several Shiloh missionaries are dear friends of mine. I was accepted with Shiloh in March and plan to continue loving and reaching the military here at Joint Base Lewis-McChord in Washington state.

Now that I am transitioning from Cadence to Shiloh, I invite you to "join me" over at Shiloh. If you are a current financial supporter, thank you for your years of partnership! I hope you will continue partnering with me and information on how to do that is included in this letter. If you are interested in joining my team, I'd be glad to chat and answer any questions you have. I plan to have my transition work with Cadence wrapped up by May 31.

WHAT'S NEXT FOR YOU?

If you want to continue receiving my prayer letters, please let me know. I already use email and a Facebook group to communicate, and these will be my main methods unless you request communication via regular mail. Please use the attached response slip to let me know your preferences or send the same info by email. Thanks!

If you desire to continue or begin as a financial partner, you can start giving to Shiloh now. You will find all the instructions for one-time or ongoing donations at www.shilohmilitaryministries.org. If you have an automatic donation set up with Cadence, please remember to cancel that. Contact Donors@Cadence.org. I am also available by phone or email to help you with either process.

Thank you for your prayers over the years and as I continue on this journey. You are a blessing and I am thankful for you!

Love,
Jennessa
