Do we speak truth over one another? Declare His goodness? Remind one another of His faithful love and plentiful redemption?

I know I forget sometimes, but when I start to share, my whole body is full of joy as I have the privilege of declaring our God's goodness and sharing all He has done in and through my life.

June marked 13 years with Cadence. I have taken time to reflect and celebrate all the Lord has done!

A few stories and praises that come to mind outside of the photos is this...

- He has provided support for 13 years on the mission field. Thank you for being a part of that!
- Back in 2013, the date October 1st was impressed on my heart. I believe that date would be when I would fly out to Germany for the first time. October 1st came around, and I was not in Germany or released to go. I was out late that night and arrived home at 10p; my dad was there to tell me I had been released to go. What a God moment that was. I then arrived at the mission field within the month! I arrived in Stuttgart, Germany, on October 31st.
- During my seven years on the field, I had the honor of discipling countless high school and middle school girls who are still faithfully walking with the Lord.
- The Lord provided doctors for me to begin to heal from the chronic fatigue that plagued me for over five years.
- I love my position with Cadence. I have had the opportunity to create and develop our internship program and then invest in and disciple each Intern who comes to Cadence. It has been a joy and honor to do so.

Discipled Jensen through her senior year of high school!

Hearing testimonies of what God did at Escape in 2014. My first middle school retreat in Germany.

Shorebreak with high school students in 2015.

Ben (in the middle) joined our mission trip to Cambodia in 2017 while he was a high school student. He later was my first intern, whom I led as an internship coordinator in 2022, and then joined Cadence to do Student ministry in 2024!

Our cooking team for Escape in 2016.

A precious mom who served in ministry alongside the ministry for a few years and became a great friend.

Now, to end this time off, I want to ask you all to spend some time praising the Lord for each of these stories and truths!

- We have a God who provides.
- We have a God who draws others to himself.
- We have a God who forgives sin and heals the sick!

Be praying for more workers for the harvest. I often hear the need and trust the Lord to provide in his timing, not mine.

Lastly, I have been sitting at a deficit of around $1,500 a month in monthly support. Your one-time gifts have been a huge blessing.

- Would you pray that the Lord provides the right people for me to talk with and share about Cadence?
- There are some actions outside of prayer you could do.
  - » Give a one-time gift that would go towards $18,000. Raising $18,000 worth of one-time gifts would cover the difference I need for the next year!
  - » Connect me with others who may be interested in ministry to the military and who may want to support me in where the Lord has called me to be with Cadence. That could be a small group, family member, friend, or even your church.
  - » Lastly, consider financially partnering with me or raising your donation amount. If 60 people increase their giving by $25, or 30 people increase by $50, the $1,500 would be completely covered!

Thankful for each one of you.
