Merry Christmas Dear Ones,

We enter this season with full and grateful hearts and much curiosity about what the next year will hold. Anthony began guest teaching in the public high schools this year alongside part-time Cadence work and leading worship at our church. Jessica added payroll duties to her role of coaching at Cadence. She also completed her certificate in Spiritual Direction and is excited about starting to meet with new clients: getting to walk with others as they seek God. Alethia is in her senior year of high school and making plans for college next year. Masami is in his sophomore year and enjoying marching band, volleyball, and the possibility of getting a driver's license and first job in the coming year. Elise is in 3rd grade and finding great outlets for her talents in the Colorado Children's Chorale and dance team with her sister. All three kids are kind, loving, bright, and doing well in this season. We look towards the new year with prayerful anticipation. We all continue to miss field ministry and loving on military families. Join us in asking the Lord where and when He might move us back into that space! Wishing you all a joyous holiday season and a bright New Year!

Love, The Amor Family

Thank you for your ongoing love, support, and prayers for our family and our ministry! We are so grateful for your partnership!
