SERVING WITH CADENCE INTERNATIONAL

Cadence.org/Jimenez

Dear friends and family,

This summer, I have the exciting opportunity to serve as an Intern with Cadence International. Cadence is an evangelical mission agency dedicated to reaching U.S. and foreign military personnel and their families with the good news of Jesus Christ. Founded in 1954, Cadence's mission is "to share the gospel and our lives with the military community."

With a focus on U.S. military ministry, I will partner with local Cadence staff who serve near Yokota Air Base in Japan. The base is located on the outskirts of Tokyo. With one of the world's largest cities to the east and mountains and rivers to the west, there's no shortage of adventures to be had! The air base is a busy hub and supports a wide range of military missions throughout the Indo-Pacific region. During my internship, I will experience military ministry, be discipled in my walk with Jesus, and receive training to be better equipped for Kingdom work.

I will work with Cadence Student Ministries, which reaches military students in grades 6–12 through relationships and programs designed to help them become disciples of Christ. Impacted by frequent moves and continual transition, military students are often spiritually receptive and eager for meaningful relationships. As I serve these teens, I will be trained to teach the Bible, lead small groups, plan an outreach event, and develop fruitful relationships with them.

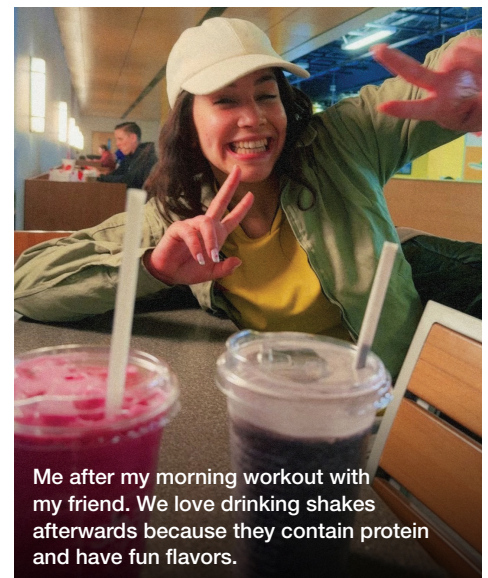

I have chosen to serve with Cadence because the Lord has grown and continues to grow my desire to serve military kids and point them to Jesus during difficult circumstances. I remember struggling with many challenges as a teen, including anxiety and my physical health. Before knowing

My Family and I celebrated my birthday together! My family often pitches in for birthdays or holidays by decorating, coordinating, or cooking so we can celebrate each other well.

My friend Kyndel and I at the Galentine's get-together, complete with funky glasses!

Me after my morning workout with my friend. We love drinking shakes afterwards because they contain protein and have fun flavors.

Christ, the challenges of life utterly consumed me, and I felt lost and hopeless. I still had struggles after I started following Jesus, but the Lord gave me purpose, fellowship, and joy in Him. He showed me that I can enjoy life because of Him, even through the hard times. I remember how difficult high school can be, and it's so much more difficult when you don't feel loved, seen, or cared for. I was blessed to have youth leaders pour into me in my high school youth group. I knew I was loved by them and loved by God. I want to show the military students how much they are loved, cared for, and seen by God.

My cousin and sister when we visited New York City together. Growing up outside of NYC is so fun!

“Is anything too hard or too wonderful for the Lord?” (Genesis 18:14) God provides!

I cannot do my internship alone. I need prayer and financial partners. Would you consider joining me? I need to raise $13,000 by May 1 to participate in this unique ministry opportunity. This amount includes all my travel and ministry expenses, as well as a small salary. A response slip is attached to this letter, which you can use to let me know if you will pray for me and/or give financially. You can also give online at Cadence.org/Jimenez.

I will be sending out regular prayer requests and ministry updates through email. If you would like to receive these updates, you can sign up by emailing me at Stephanie.Jimenez@Cadence.org. I would love to keep you informed on how my internship is going.

Thank you for your support and prayers!

With Love,
Stephanie Jimenez
