

Sneller Salute

NOVEMBER 2025

This Thanksgiving, we want you to hear a few testimonies from folks in our ministry whom we dearly love. Rejoice as you read what you have shared in through your prayers and support. We could never acknowledge all the ways you have given of yourselves to us and this ministry. Thank you! Make no mistake; the stories shared here have happened because of God’s work through you! You have helped sustain us in sharing the gospel and our lives with the military community.

Much love and God bless,
Deric and Rebecca Sneller

“My family began consistently attending the K-town House in January 2025, but we had been in touch with the Snellers before we started going regularly. During a very difficult season of transition and spiritual angst, they prayed for us, counseled us, and met with us, even though we weren’t yet part of their community. They beautifully reflect the love and wisdom of God and embody true hospitality and the heart of Christ’s Church. We are deeply thankful for our Cadence family in Kaiserslautern, Germany. It has been a true extension of a church home for us and a place of safety as we continue walking the path God has set before us.

We have also learned a cool song with dance moves about joy, acquired more kids’ books on our Amazon wish list, and I (Savannah) have grown to love getting big hugs! Rebecca is an excellent hugger! We truly believe those who come into connection with this sweet family and ministry will be blessed and pointed to Jesus in a beautiful and organic way.”

“I am one of a few single people who attend The House. This is in part because I have found that I connect more with most of the married people who attend, as most are closer to my age. The ministry has been a great blessing to me because I have been able to find good friends within the Christian community and spend both quality and quantity time with them in fellowship, building those interpersonal relationships.

As a single person in the midst of a heavily married ministry, it has shown me the different dynamics of a healthy marriage, exemplified by both couples with and without children. The knowledge and wisdom brought by the attendees during Bible study is edifying, with the perspectives of those from different walks of life bringing forth healthy discussion with sometimes opposing insights.

Going to the House on Friday after a long week and hard days always provides a breath of fresh air and relaxation. There is such comfort in entering an environment where the Spirit of God is clearly at work in every individual. It is the kind of place where I can nod off during study after a hard day, and we can all laugh about it together later!”

“We came here to Germany hoping and praying to find a community, and the K-town Hospitality House gave us that. They’ve blessed us for two years now. It’s hard being away from family, but having people here to share adventures with and grow in Christ has made all the difference during our time here. One of our favorite memories with Cadence is visiting Normandy together for Veterans Day, standing on the beach and appreciating the history that happened there. Something about experiencing meaningful things together with good people makes them much more meaningful.”

“Even before I moved to Germany, God was blessing me through the Sneller family. I first met the Snellers when I was stationed in Okinawa, and God had a great plan, as He always does. In 2023, the Snellers followed me to Germany. God knew I would need them because it was not easy being overseas and away from family.

It was so wonderful having the K-Town Hospitality House during the holidays, especially when I was single. I felt loved and welcomed by a Christian community. When I was struggling with a dating breakup with my now-wife, I was able to lean heavily on Deric for counsel. In addition, Deric and Rebecca helped my wife and me prepare for marriage through premarital counseling. A year later, they helped plan our baby shower!

The Snellers continue to be our Christian mentors and, more importantly, our dear friends. We have made great memories and friends at the K-Town Hospitality House!

“The Kaiserslautern Hospitality House means a great deal to the Garzas. At first, we weren’t sure what to expect. In a home that’s 50 percent introverted, the idea of meeting with a group of strangers for food and fellowship was quite nerve-wracking. Yet, we persisted. We felt led by friendship and the desire to find a place where we could grow spiritually. What we found was so much more.

We found true fellowship. Friday nights provide a gathering of brilliant minds that truly seek to understand and share God’s word. The discussions are deep and profound, and they always seem to deliver a message that we were specifically meant to hear. There are multiple and varied perspectives that are never argumentative but always thought-provoking and encouraging. We always leave feeling inspired to seek God more and implement His ways daily.

We found family. Living overseas has unique challenges that can bend the will of even the most independent of people. KHH is a community that’s always willing to lend a hand and say a prayer, no matter what your needs might be. It’s empowering to have such a strong community to lean on.

We found fun! All KHH gatherings are fun for our whole family. Our children beg to spend time at the Hospitality House and with the friends we’ve made there. KHH and the community it has built truly embody the spirit of hospitality, and we are forever grateful that God led us here.”
