SERVING WITH CADENCE INTERNATIONAL • CADENCE.ORG/GOMES

Hey Everyone,

I hope your season of celebrating the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ was meaningful and rich. These past five months working with Cadence here at Fort Drum have brought many teaching moments and joys that I could never have hoped for. I give all praise to God for giving me the opportunity to serve this community during my Limited Term assignment.

By the time you receive this newsletter, I will have completed my contract with Cadence. I plan to pursue remaining here at Fort Drum, volunteering with Cadence, as well as becoming a strength and conditioning coach for the U.S. Army. I need some schooling to reach these goals, but I hope to have fulfilled all the necessary requirements by April. I ask for your prayers, as I feel strongly about continuing to serve our soldiers in a different capacity.

Thinking back over the time here at Fort Drum causes me to overflow with praise to God. Thank you all for your prayers and support in sending me here and allowing me to stay as long as I did. I am so grateful to the Snells, who helped me easily transition into ministry at Fort Drum. Thank you to my family for always being in my corner. I am grateful to Cadence for providing me with the opportunity to serve and connect with many people. Most of all, I thank God for growing and shaping me to be more like Him.

As we all head into the New Year, may we be reminded of the goodness of God and the blessings He gives us, even when they come in the form of trials, which produce perseverance and growth in our faith.

I send my greetings and thankfulness to all of you! Happy New Year!

Blessings,
Isaac Gomes
